The Bee
—IS A—
GREAT ADVERTISING MEDIUM.
TRY IT!
Do you want reliable news? Do you want a fearless race advocate? Do you want colored trade? Read and advertise in THE BEE!

VOL XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1899. No. 34

Dr. Daniel H. Williams,—See 5 page

Senator Quay will win.

The President's message was a silent document.

It was silent on the negro at any rate.

What is to be the destiny of the negro?

The apologists are increasing.

The Washington Post is suffering with a severe attack of wind colic.

It will require two presidents, with the Post included, to make the negro accept such leadership as Kelly Miller and Booker T. Washington.

We have sem ds among the white people

Editor Fortune of the New York Age is a manly and fearless journalist

We need brave men and men of nerve.

Don't be a toady when you are right.

This is an ordeal through which the negro is passing.

There will be a bright day for the negro soon.

Be honest, true and manly.

What the colored race needs today is a Moses.

Is it best for the negro to be silent?

Be useful citizens and manly in your utterances.

Are the negroes cowards or are they manly?

Don't be alarmed, there will be a day of reckoning.

Speak the truth. be honest and sincere.

It is the coward who cannot speak the truth.

There are millions in this country who will need the help of the negro.

How did you like Editor Fortune's speech?

The Post as well as other papers need apologetic negro leadership.

There are breakers ahead.

Should a race be compromised because we don't want to insult our enemies?

Let us live in hope, the promise land will be reached some day.

Don't forget to express your honest convictions.

Think well of your neighbor, you may ask him a favor yet.

If you want a live paper, read THE BEE.

No one will regret the retirement of Secretary Bliss.

He will do all of his weeping to himself.

No one will weep because he leaves the Cabinet.

If one or two others will go, the country would be in a better condition.

It is the brave man who dares to express his honest convictions.

THE BEE takes the lead, and all others follow.

Send your advertisements to THE BEE. This paper will do you good.

Gray and Costly are running a first class house.

You should speak cordially when you know you are right.

No trimmer can succeed in anything.

A new city Postmaster will be appointed soon.

It will be well for the negro to be independent in politics.

It is not necessary for the colored man to be uneasy.

There is a bright future before him.

Sergeant Daily is the man to be promoted.

He is the best, most active and he most deserving Sergeant on the force.

You should never believe rumors.

The Colored American has at last concluded to stand square on a school trustee candidate.

Who informed our contemp r y that Mrs. Terrell is to resign.

Send your job work to the BEE office at once.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

A DIFFERENCE.

There is a decided difference between a self constituted body and a representative one. The first is merely a body representing their own views and possessing no authority to represent those of any body else. The second are delegates duly chosen by bona fide constituents and clothed with powers to represent others beside themselves. It is for the latter class of individuals that people of sense have respect. And perhaps it is because we are not in the habit of speaking as duly authorized delegates that the effect of our conferences and addresses is not more salutary. It is true that most of the men who engage in these deliberations or conferences are men of solid reputation and of unimpeachable character as well as good judgement. But it must be remembered that we are in a republic where, political deliberative bodies are representative and not autocratic and that whenever bodies meet they can expect results only commensurate with the scope of the influence they exert on given constituencies. To suppose that a conference of men who are for the most part office holders or office seekers or who have no influence with people outside of this city, can do anything real or tangible in the interest of the race is simple nonsense. Besides while conferences are very well in their way as expressions of individual will or individual desire, they are antagonized by the people at large for the simple reason that they are self constituted and do not proceed from the people. The address of the recent conference may have been virtuously conceived and diplomatically groomed, but was nevertheless a document represeniting the conjoined opinion of the individual members only who fathered it. We do not know what the President thought of the document. It was a hot and cold document and one can take either horn of the delema. But had the document been framed by the proper delegates of the people he would have been unequivocally complimented for his wisdom and patriotism or he would not. Not having heard from the people we are unable to say what their judgment is; but it is clear to us that if it is desirable to know their feelings it is proper to call together properly accredited delegates and get a popular consensus. There is certainly no objection to conferences. Let us have them and more of them. But when we desire to get a true expression of opinion from the masses, let our good people select their own representatives. We cannot anticipate the outcome of the conference as a means for good, but at present we see but little to be proud of.

THE HOWARD UNIVERSITY TREASURER.

The people of this country are anxious to know what disposition the trustees of Howard University intend to make of the position made vacant by the death of Mr. J. B. Johnson. Howard University is a colored institution and there is no reason that no should not be appointed treasurer. Last week we mentioned the names of some very worthy citizens who could fill the place with credit. We have no doubt that ex-collector of taxes John F. Cook would make a good officer. It is to the interest of the colored people to see that a proper colored representative is appointed. It is about time that the wishes of the colored people be respected to some extent. Let the race demand the appointment.

SATISFY THE PEOPLE.

If President McKinley is very anxious to satisfy the people let him appoint as one of the judges of the Supreme Court of the District, C. Maurice Smith, Esq. one of the most brilliant lawyers before the bar of the District of Columbia, and Mr. Lewis D. Wine city postmaster if it is his intention to appoint one. We have no objections to Mr. Willet, because he has made a first class official. Notwithstanding the fact that he is a democrat, he has never allowed color prejudice to creep into his office. He is a fair and competent official and has treated the colored employes in office with fairness and discretion.

INTERLOPERS.

The great mistake our women make is the admission of every blackleg who may come to this city, into their society. In a few days the people of this city will no doubt witness one of the most diabolical blackmailing schemes, to injure the reputation of a highly respected woman, that has ever taken place in our courts. Men without the slightest degree of proof, who will go upon the witness stand and testify that they have seen our women in a compromising position with men, when there is not the slightest proof ought to be punished for perjury. A woman's honor is all that she possesses and when that is taken away from her, by irresponsible men for a money consideration they should be given the most severe punishment. The insults that are being offered our women are from men without reputation or honor. They are the interlopers who force themselves into our social circle and placed in some public office because they have the power of flattering weak officials of the Afro-American race. Until our women repudiate such men so long will they be slandered by those libertines and blacklegs.

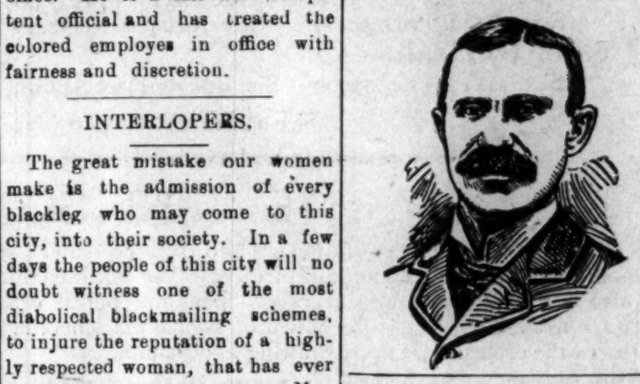
MALICIOUS WIT.

Jokes that are intended to cater to race prejudice and to foster views or impressions that are inimical to end brutally unjust to toward any element of the population of this country are a sort of pleasantry from which the humorous papers might well abstain, and the circulation of which in other papers it were better to abandon. Wit that requires malice for its spicing is a sort of humor that should be discouraged. Wit that cruelly, meanly, and brutally stabs a race is an abomination.

From the Sunday Post.

The above is a most commendable utterance. It is an idication of a breadth of sentiment of which the Post is fully capable; but to our way of thinking is measurably inconsistent with some of its previous utterances. It is true that wit which implies a mean and unjustifiable thrust toward a race or individual, deserves to be condemned by all good people even when the motive is not culpable. But wit of this sort is no worse or unjustifiable than the loose statements we often see in newspapers regarding the actual condition of a race. For instance, we have read with sorrow many statements made by prejudiced editors of falsehoods and gross misrepresentations about the colored people, editorials and news items charging laziness, want of progressiveness, crime and woeful ignorance. These charges or imputations have been lodged against a whole race and calculated and disigned to injure the race. The condemnation with which the Post chastises the course humorists who tip their wit with the venom of malice should also be meted out to those who deliberately and wickedly and maliciously vilify and grossly misrepresent a race. We trust that the Post will be as generous toward the colored race as it seems to be toward the Jew and do its part toward preventing the currency of base lies and contumely. The colored man may have his faults, as indeed have men of every race, but considering his opportunities it would seem that he is as much entitled to a fair show and fair treatment in the race for life and betterment as any other class of American citizens. As a class the colored people are striving to reach the highest standards of our civilization and are approximating them with commendable steadiness of purpose and success, and if they are not injured by the malicious manufacture of adverse sentiment they will soon prove to the world their adaptability to the most advanced society and a useful factor in political and material prosperity We comment the Post and hope that it will open its heart encouge us in their defense.

HORN, THE TAILOR.



Ah! there. Ten dollar suits this time of the year from imported goods. Well! Horn is the greatest man in town. Don't you believe it? Don't take our word for it, but go and be convined. Horn, the tailor is making suits for ten dollars from imported goods. Times are dull it is true, but, Horn is not effected in the least. You may go where you please, but Horn can give you a better bargain than any man in this city. He is a first class gentleman and a man who does what he says. Yes, he has the boss cutter and a gentleman who very seldom makes a mistake. His chief clerk is an affiable gentleman; a commodating as well as fair. Will you visit Mr. Horn's place? Will you tell others that you are satisfied?

FIRST IN THE LAND.

Splendid Appointment of a Colored Surgeon in Cook County Hospital.

DR. DANIEL H. WILLIAMS WINS A HIGHLY COVETED HONOR.

A REPRESENTATIVE WHO WILL DO GREAT CREDIT TO THE RACE—PRESIDENT IRWIN AND COMMISSIONER WRIGHT DESERVES GREAT CREDIT AT OUR HANDS.

From the Chicago, (Ill.,) Conservator.

One of the most prominent hospitals of the country, Cook County Hospital stands among the first both in size and character of work. No city has a larger hospital, and no city is there a larger field of work that in this famous institution. Chicago physicians show the keenest rivalry for places on the hospital Board and immediately after the election of every Board of County Commissioners, there are dozens of applications for every place on the hospital staff. Every possible political, social and business influence is needed to secure the places and not until the last nomination is made, does the contest wane

Plainly in such a contest the colored physician stands but slight chance even in Chicago. In others cities the colored physician stands no show at all. No such honors ever went to a colored man in any metropolitan city and until the present case it was deemed out of the question.

But time brings its changes, and Chicago, leading in all other matters has lead in this. The prominece of the colored medical men of Chicago, and especially the pre-eminence of Dr. Daniel H. Williams, among the surgeons, not only of Chicago, but of the entire country, made the contest for a place in the Cook County Hospatal something of a hopeful work. Besides this we have a republican Board of County Commissioners with a president, Hon. James Irvin earnestly and untiringly a friend of the colored people; supporting him at all times, the race has as its representative on the Board, Hon. Edward H. Wright, a colored man who never lets pass an opportunity to advance the interest his people. All of these circumstances made ultimate success possible. Believing there was a chance to win, colored citizens urged the appoint of a colored physician and kept up the plea for representation by arguments at all times and places which furnished opportunity.

It was not so difficult to secure a position on the visiting staff of the hospital. Colored physicians have been thus honored, butplaces were largely honorary, as all of the work is done by the attending staff, the visiting physicians being called in only for consultation. For this reason all energies were bent on securing a place on the attending staff so that our representative would have active service in the hospital.

NEGROES TO BE DISFRANCHISED.

BILL TO THAT EFFECT INTRODUCED IN NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

IT WILL PROBABLY BE PASSED.

DEMOCRATS, WHO FAVOR THE MEASURE, HAVE A LARGE MAJORITY IN BOTH HOUSES.

VIEWS OF COLORED LEADERS.

Prof. Crosby Urges That that the Votes be Taken from Enough to Make It Certain that Good Government Will Prevail Throughout The State.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 15.—A bill has been introduced into the North Carolina Legisluture to disfranchise the negro. The democrats have a big majority and the bill doubless be passed. It is model after the Louisiana law.

The committee having the measure in charge recently announced that it would give the negro leaders a hearing. Two responded—Rev. R. H. W. Leak, of Raleigh, and Prof. Crosby. Mr. Leak said he would be satisfied with anything the Legislature might do in the matter. "In the South" he declared, "negroes are allowed to work and earn money, together with whites and to "spend it together, while in the North they are not allowed to make money together. I like conditions here better."

Professor Crosby is principal of one of the seven State Normal schools He said there were 125,000 negro voters in North Carolina, of whom only 25,000 were qualified to form an opinion as to suffrage.

"I regard this solid black vote," he asserted, "as a great menace to our government. The negroes need, in fact, to be saved from themselves. You want to disfranchise enough negroes to make it certain that good government will prevail. Do that and stop. Do not go to the extent of persecution."

MUSICAL NOTES.

Mr. Walter Loving, a Washington boy and former graduate from the High school, is now principal musician of the 8th U. S. V. Infantry Band.

The semi-annual banquet of the Alphon Glee Club was a brilliant affair. Mr. J. Henry Lewis was toastmaster. The club rendered several selections in their usually excellent style. Prof. J. T. Layton's bass solo was heartily encored.

A good musical program is heard at St. Luke's P. E. Church Sundays. The choir under the direction of Mr. Johnson is doing good work.

Another promising local musician is Miss Alexina Montague, one of our assistant drawing teachers in the public schools. Miss Montague is a brilliant performer upon the piano.

CONGRSSIONAL LYCEUM.

Those who were not present at the Congressional Lyceum Sunday afternoon last, missed a great treat. On motion, the Chase resolution, "Resolved, That the negro is not a factor in the American body politic," was by unanimous consent taken up for consideration. Dr. G. H. Richardson led off in a strong and eloquent declaration that the negro was a material factor in the industrial, educational, religious and social affairs of this county. Editor Chase took issue with the doctor and true Websterian style entered a strong plea to each of the doctor's allegations. Prof Geo. W. Jackson "filed" a telling replication to Mr. Chase's plea, after which

MISS BEAL WINS HER HER SUIT

A GRATEFUL DAUGHTER REWARDED.

Miss Norcisla E. C. F. Beal, formerly a teacher in the public schools of this city and one of the best, instituted suit for the possession of her premises 1924 New Hampshire avenue, northwest, that was left to her under a contract by her mother, the late Mrs. Narcisla H. Beal, who died in this city come years ago, has been successful in wining her suit. The property is very valuable, worth it is claimed, about $8,000. The case was hotly contested by Attorney Southerns, representing Miss Beal and Attorney Richards representing the stepfather of Miss Beal.

During the life of Mrs. Beal her daughter, Miss Narcisla contributed very largely to her support. She would give her mother from 40 to 45 dollars monthly out of her salary of 55 dollars per month. Her mother wrote a contract, in which she said at her death she wanted this particular house to go to her daughter because she had contributed to her support. Miss Beal was was affectionate and good to her mother and whose goodness her mother was anxious to reward.

The father held possession of the house, but had no legal claim to it, and the jury so decided it in a decission rendered in favor a few days ago. The decree of the courts is that the property be sold. It was to have been sold on last Tuesday, but on account of a dilitory motion made by counsel for the other side, the sale was postponed until next Tuesday at which time the property will be sold. Miss Beal is an enteprising young woman and possessing excellent business qualities. She proved herself to be a dutiful daughter to an invalid mother and she has set an excellent example for her friends and associate to follow Miss Beal has been a victim of misfortune, but true womanly disposition and spirit will sooner or later overcome all impediments that may have befallen her.

Mrs. James H. Fletcher, formerly of this city, but now of New York, has been visiting her many friends in this city, for several weeks. After an enjoyable time, she left for her home last week much elated over her pleasant stay. Mrs. Fletcher is very much missed by her many admiring friends.

A committee of ladies of the Nineteenth Street Baptist church has taken in charge the grand rally which takes place during the march. These ladies are very energetic workers and no doubt that the desired sum will be realized.

Miss Maggie Lewis a very energetic teacher in the public schools is confined to her home by sickness.

The sickness of Miss Eva B. Grimshaw is very much regretted by her many friends. Miss Grimshaw is one of the "model teachers" and her absence from the school is keenly felt.

Miss Clara Jones is able to attend her school duties again.

Mr. Moses Anderson, is suffering from a relapse. His mind is weaker than heretofore.

ADVANTAGE

—OF—

BAILEY'S IMPROVED TRUSS.

It adjusts itself so perfectly to the rupture that it is impossible for it to become displaced.
It permits the utmost freedom of motion with perfect safety.
All uncomfortable and injurious steel spring pressure is avoided.
The pad is held in place by woven bands, which retain an equal pressure in all positions of the body.
It can be worn in bed, a great desideratum to the youug as tending to a perfect cure.
It is the only suitable truss for children and females.
The proper amount of pressure can be brought to bear and maintained in any position without pinching or harm to the wearer.
It will cure hernia if placed on the patient sufficiently early.
Excepting umbilical, it is the best truss ever offered for all kinds of hernia.
It is so perfect and comfortable in its adjustment that the patient in a short time forgets he is wearing it. (See the certificate of Mr. Daniel Johnson.)
Sent postage paid to any address on receipt of price; $3 for single and $4 for double truss
In ordering, give location of hernia, right or left side, and measurement. Satisfaction given or money refunded when the truss is returned in good order. Address:
